Harley-Davidson Trading Analysis (26/09/2025)

The trend is up. The stock is trading within the 365-135 EMA range. The downward wave structure has been truncated. There is bullish divergence on the Awesome Oscillator, and the Stochastic Oscillator indicates an oversold condition.

Trade idea:

Buy at the beginning of the ascending wave structure formation when wave A breaks the sloping channel of the truncated descending structure.
Stop-loss at 27.80.
Price targets are 29.80 and 30.80.

S&P 500 Trading Analysis (26/09/2025)

The trend is ascending. The downward, inner, truncated wave structure ended with the breach of the sloping channel. There is bullish divergence on the Awesome Oscillator, and the stochastic oscillator signals an oversold condition. Breaching the 6613.4 level will begin the formation of an ascending wave structure.

Trade idea:

Buy at the breach of 6613.4.
Stop-loss at 6568.7.
Price targets are 6666.6 and 6698.0.
